

The Civilian Welfare Council invites you to an evening of “Murderous fun” with the Walkersville Southern Railroad.

Join us on the 28th of July for a “Who-dun-it” trip through the picturesque countryside on the Walkersville Southern Railroad. As you board the 1930’s era train cars, the scenario is put into place. You then interact with Professional Actors as much or as little as you wish. During the trip, the train stops at Walkersville Park for an all-you-can-eat dinner while the Mystery continues to unfold. After dinner, you will re-board the train for the short ride back to the station and the solving of the mystery. Train departs the station at 6pm and returns at approximately 8:30. Wear casual attire. This excursion is recommended for adults only and the maximum price is $42 per person.

You may look up the railroad at www.wsrr.org

DOD Civilian employees, DOD Ft Detrick contract employees or Active Military, and one guest price is $37 per ticket, additional tickets are $42 each. Contact your CWC Representative if you are interested in going. A head count is needed by 1 June and all ticket money is due to by 1 July.
